

AUTHORIZATION FORM – MEDIA

During the season, Florida West Ballet may reproduce or participate in videotape, still photography and web site images that may involve the use of the dancers' names, voices, or likenesses. Florida West Ballet will not publish any dancer's name adjacent to her/his image on our web site.

Florida West may also ask news media such as representatives of television and newspapers to cover our performances, rehearsals or other events. They may take notes, photos, sound recordings and/or videotapes that include your dancer. These items may appear or be used in news or feature stories by print and television media.

You have the right to object to the use of your dancer's name, picture or voice in these productions. So that we at Florida West Ballet may comply with your wishes, please complete the form below.
